

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

I want the rules that limit media consolidation to be preserved and strengthened, not weakened. Constant dumbing down of the public through consolidated ownership will have adverse ramifications on the democracy that makes our country unique in the world.